

COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS
HOUSING APPEALS COMMITTEE

STANDING ORDER NO. 05-01

SERVICE UPON PROPOSED INTERVENERS AND INTERESTED PERSONS

Applicable to all Appeals filed with the Committee on April 1, 2005 and thereafter.

Effective April 1, 2005, it is hereby ORDERED that:

Upon filing of a motion to intervene or a request to participate as an interested person pursuant to 760 CMR 56.06(2)(b) or (c), and prior to the presiding officer's ruling on such motion or request, the proposed intervener or proposed interested person shall be entitled to be served with all documents pursuant to 760 CMR 56.06(6)(b) as if such motion or request had been granted. Proposed interveners shall also be entitled to participate in hearing sessions and teleconferences. Such persons do not have full rights of parties, and thus, their consent is not required for assented-to motions pursuant to 760 CMR 56.06(5)(a)(2)(b), joint motions, stipulations, or similar matters.

Adopted: April 1, 2005
Effective: April 1, 2005.
